FINANCE AND TRADE.

FINANCE. OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL. \ MEMPELS, September 23, 1998, \} The money market was exceedingly quiet centeriny. Our discount houses had nothing to report worthy of mention. Exchange has been very source for some days, while the demand is very fair in a small way. Bankers buy cotton bills at par, with an occasional exception upon points outside of New York-Prox dence, for instance, at its discount. New Orleans signs is taken at 3/2 off to par. Selling on all points at 1/4 95/c prevainm.

Gold opened in New York at 1430 and closed at 14.75c. Dealers in this market boy at 140% 141. Selling at 140c. We have no sales of stocks or bonds to re port. The market is ture and quotations nom-City Bonds are in some demand at Sec, but colders are not disposed to sell, Only Scrip is firm. Dealers buy at 72774c. Coanly warrants are firm. The demand is in a small way and small pieces are the only ones that are saleable. For them brokers would pay 64 265c, while very destrable pieces, running may, from 55 to $20, would realize 67 356c. Held log, as to size of lot, at 652705.

We heard of a sale of school Scrip to-day.

This scrip has been issued for the purpose of paying school tax, and has but recently been put upon the market. The Genand for it is in small sums. The sale alluded to above em-braced 5160 at 80c. We quote at 55c buying by lealers. Sciling at 86 ;. Poitce Scrip is in demand. Brokers buy a SDOUGHED MINE WELL BY STORY With our oppressive taxation and wast revenues, it seems, at first glance, inexplicable that the public debt should be increasing. But it is not inexplicable. Mismanagement and swindling, in all possible shapes and forms, explain the whole matter.

COTTON STATEMENT. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, MEMPHIS, September 23, 1868. Stock on hand Sept. 1, 1888..... Received to-day. Received previously......

Steck on hand to-day, 6 p.m From an advance sheet of the New York Commercial and Financial Chronicle we take the following statement of the covernment of cotton for the year ending september 1, 1868: It appears that the total crop reaches 2,485, 855 bales, while the exports have been 1,637,015 bales, and the home consumption 83,925 bales, leaving a stock on hand at the close of the year of 38,150 bales. The et SE of cotton at the inte-rior towns, September 1 180, not included in the receipts, is 5087 bales, against 5700 bales last season. The total shipments at the Atlantic and Gu shipping ports this year have been 2,282,582 hates against 1,95,74 cales hat year. If, now, we add the shipments from remnessee and chewhere direct to manufacturers, we have the following as the crop statement for the two

Until the wonther changes we may look for no improvement in the trade of our city, which was hardly duller in raid-unmer, then it was to-day. A large number of country wagons were in tows, but the wants of the planter, however great they may be, will not be filled until the prospects ahead become bright-er. In nearly every instance they decline lay-ing in even the usual necessities of its, which some of them have been long deprived of, and except a law pounds of bacon, a pair of shoes or a dress or two of the chespest material, they return to their homes with empty wago Tais state of affairs was not anticipated at this season.
